Have Your Say - Meeting the Leadership Challenge Today

I write to invite you to a Square Mile Leadership Forum; an interactive opportunity to meet and explore the unique leadership challenges and opportunities facing UK business today.

The Senior Leadership Exchange Programme has been developed in conjunction with Pinnacle Group for a series of programmes to expand the understanding and experience of talented senior management teams for potential future director roles.

This is your forum to meet fellow HR Directors and L&D Professionals to discuss and experience how this and other programmes would best benefit your managers to network for leadership success.
